

OMLA Code of Conduct

Section 1: Objectives of OMLA – It is the duty of every member to perpetuate the dignity of his chosen profession.

Section 2: Code of Ethics of OMLA

- A. To pursue his professional work in the spirit of fairness to his client, with fidelity to security in conformance with appropriateness, and with high ideals of personal honor.
- B. To properly and impartially analyze security problems receiving his attention and to advance the best possible solution for the protection of his client.
- C. To conduct himself in a dignified manner, to avoid using any improper or questionable methods of soliciting professional work and to decline to pay or accept remuneration for such incompatible patrons.
- D. To refrain from associating himself with or allowing the use of his name by any enterprise of questionable character, or in any manner countenancing misrepresentation.
- E. To cooperate in advancing the best interest of the locksmithing industry by interchange of general information and experience with his fellow locksmith.
- F. To encourage and promote loyalty for his craft and interest himself in public welfare, always ready to apply his special knowledge, skill, and training for the use and betterment of his craft.

Swearing in: Pledge to Membership

“I _____ do hereby accept membership in the Oklahoma Master Locksmith Association and understand that I shall be governed by the Constitution, By-laws, Rules, Regulations and policies of said association.”.