November Training—Introduction to Automobile Locksmithing

This 4+ hour introductory class, presented by Vice President Patrick Walling, gives an overview to the basics of Automobile Locksmithing. Patrick will discuss the profitability, starting equipment, and advice to getting started in this ever changing field. He will also show multiple programmers and new equipment for this ever growing industry.

Class will begin at 10AM on Saturday, November 6. We will break for lunch at noon. The OMLA membership meeting begins at 1PM, and then class will resume a few minutes after the meeting. Class should end around 4:30PM.

Cost of this class is $100. Registration is on page 5 of the newsletter, and must be turned into Clarence by Wednesday, November 3. Check can be included or you can call Clarence to pay over the phone. Lunch is provided and you are invited to stay for the membership meeting, whether you are an OMLA member or not. Only checks can be collected at time of class—any CC payments must be paid in advance with Clarence.

Class is held in Oklahoma City, at ADT Security, 7504 Broadway Extension, 73116.
